

Урок 18

Video “Books in our life”

-see a video

additional – дополнительный

mentor – наставник

bound – связанный

manuscript – рукопись

convenient – удобный

(house) chores – домашние хлопоты

outdated – устаревший

reasonable fee – разумная плата

memoirs – мемуары

fiction – художественная литература

inspire – вдохновлять

playwright – драматург

scrupulously – скрупулезно

treat – лечить

heritage – наследие

quote – цитата

-put sentences in the correct order (написать правильный порядок предложений и прислать на проверку учителю)

1. The most common place where a person can find a book is a library.
2. But books have been printed on paper for only the last 500 years.
3. Different people like reading different kinds of books.
4. Books also help adults get additional knowledge on different subjects or just have a nice time reading interesting stories.
5. There are a lot of genres of books, such as memoirs, fiction, science fiction, adventure stories, thrillers, novels, tales, detective stories, myths, and many others.
6. ‘Books and friends should be few but good,’ says an English proverb.
7. The book ‘Anton Chekhov: A Life’ by Donald Rayfield. is a great biography of one of the most famous Russian writers and playwrights.

- answer the questions (устные ответы записать и прислать аудиофайл на проверку)

1. What kind of books do you prefer? Why?
2. What genre of books do you like reading? Why?
3. What is your favourite book? Why?
4. What is the latest book you’ve read? Did you like it?
5. What do you think about the proverb at the end of the video?